Dear Miss Soubry

Examination of the Greater Nottingham – Broxtowe Borough, Gedling Borough and Nottingham City - Aligned Core Strategies (ACS)

Your letter of December 2013 was drawn to the Programme Officer's attention by a third party. The guidance notes on examination procedures which I issued in July 2013 stated the following:

“No additional written information to these statements (responses to the matters, issues and questions) should be submitted before or during the hearings unless I have specifically requested it. Unsolicited papers will not be accepted for consideration.”

I have forwarded your letter to Helen Adlard, the Chief Planning Inspector, at the Inspectorate's Bristol office and she will respond in due course.

Please note that the examination is proceeding by way of an examination in public rather than a public inquiry. The procedures, including the importance of written representations as well as oral ones, were explained in the guidance notes and at the pre-hearing meeting.

Yours sincerely

Jill Kingaby
Inspector
